

CAMPUS VISITS

A campus visit is the best way to gain a realistic impression of the Vanderbilt MBA program. During your pre-arranged visit, you will attend class and have lunch with a current student, interview with an admissions officer, and attend an information session with our career management staff. Although we welcome you at any time during normal business hours, organized campus visits are offered Monday through Thursday while classes are in session. We do not schedule organized visits during the first week of classes, final exam periods, or semester breaks. A typical visit lasts from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., but may start earlier or end later. Please request your visit at least two weeks in advance. Request a campus visit by using our website or contacting our office.

DIRECTIONS TO OWEN

From the airport, follow signs for Interstate 40 West toward Nashville for about six miles to Exit 209A (Broadway). Turn left on Broadway, crossing over the interstate. At the second light, take the right fork in the road (West End Avenue), and then turn left onto 21st Avenue. Owen is the orange-red brick building on the right at the intersection of 21st and Grand Avenues. Go straight through that intersection to the next light and turn left onto Scarritt Place. Public parking is available for about $8 per day in Wesley Place Garage, just across the street from Owen. Spaces 52-170 are available for visitor parking. Note the number of your space when you park because you will need to put cash in the appropriate slot on the East wall of the garage.

ON CAMPUS EVENTS

Vanderbilt hosts weekend events for prospective MBA students and their spouses or significant others. For more information, please visit our website or contact our office.

Discover Weekends (November 6-7 and February 12-13) allow you to fully immerse yourself in the “Vanderbilt MBA Experience.” Discover Weekends offer an opportunity to learn more about the Vanderbilt MBA without having to miss a day at the office. Featuring faculty presentations, panel discussions, career management workshops, admissions & financial aid discussions, campus tours, meals and social events, Discover Weekend is a great way to see Vanderbilt early in the admissions process. The weekend starts with an optional Friday evening reception and concludes Sunday morning. During Discover weekends, interviews may be available and scheduled in advance.

Diversity Symposium (November 6) is especially targeted for those interested in the advancement of underrepresented minorities in business. This Symposium features presentations, group discussions, meals, etc. Candidates learn about student life, challenges facing minorities in business, and Vanderbilt’s commitment to diversity. Participants can stay for Discover Weekend to gain even more information.

Women in Business Symposium (February 12) is especially targeted for individuals interested in learning about the challenges and opportunities facing women in business. Hear first-hand from students and alumni on what life is like as a woman in the Vanderbilt MBA program and in post-MBA careers. A corporate guest speaker will let participants know why businesses value diversity and give advice on how to succeed. Candidates can stay for Discover Weekend to gain even more information.

Scholars’ Weekend (March 19-20) is an exceptional opportunity for exceptional applicants. Vanderbilt proudly considers exceptional candidates who currently reside in the continental United States for the prestigious Dean’s Scholar Award. Priority consideration is given to those who apply by the January deadline as participation in Scholars’ Weekend is mandatory. Our guests for this event will participate in a variety of activities to become familiar with the Vanderbilt MBA curriculum, culture, career opportunities, and surrounding community. Those invited have the opportunity to compete for selection as a Dean’s Scholar, the highest honor for an incoming student.

Welcome Weekend (April 9-10) is for admitted applicants only. The weekend includes a welcome reception corporate presentation, faculty presentations, panel discussions, career management, financial and relocation workshops, and student-guided tours of Vanderbilt’s campus and Nashville’s great nightlife. Free time is available for recreation, sightseeing, and house hunting. In addition, exclusive activities for spouses and significant others are held to discuss the life of an MBA student, assist with their transition and welcome them to the Vanderbilt MBA community.
